Dear Sir or Madam

ISG Engineering Services Limited (in Administration) ('the Company')

On 20 September 2024, the Company entered administration and Timothy Vance, Alan Michael Hudson and I were appointed as Joint Administrators. The appointments were made by the High Court of Justice in England and Wales under the provisions of paragraph 12 of Schedule B1 of the Insolvency Act 1986, following applications by the directors of the Company. Formal notices of our appointment are attached.

As licensed Insolvency Practitioners, we are bound by the Insolvency Code of Ethics when carrying out all professional work relating to the Administration.

UK operations of the ISG Group, which operated construction and related services across the UK, ceased to trade with immediate effect.

No further work will be undertaken on existing UK contracts, including for Construction, Fit Out and Engineering services.

Contractors are not required or authorised to attend sites, which have been closed down. We understand that some contractors will have equipment at construction sites. To discuss collection, please contact site owners directly.

The Company are being wound down under our supervision whilst we conduct an investigation of their financial affairs.

At present, it is not anticipated that there will be any funds available for a distribution to creditors. However, in accordance with paragraph 49(5) of Schedule B1 to the Insolvency Act 1986, we shall be preparing proposals within eight weeks of our appointment. The proposals will be made available to all creditors and will indicate any changes to dividend prospects.

Unless contacted directly by representatives of the Administrators, suppliers, including contractors, are not required to continue to provide goods or services to the Company. If any orders placed with you by the Company prior to our appointment have not been completed, they should not be completed unless you receive written confirmation from either of us, or our authorised representative, that the goods or services are still required.

With effect from the date of our appointment, 20 September 2024, the Company will not be responsible for payment for any goods or services delivered to the Company unless these are expressly instructed or requested by the Administrators.

Please note that debts incurred by any of the Company before our appointment will rank as unsecured claims against the relevant Company. Any sums due to any of the Company arising after our appointment must be paid in full and without set-off against any debts incurred by the Company prior to our appointment.

As noted above, we do not expect to have sufficient funds to make a distribution to creditors. However, should you wish to submit a claim in the Administration of one of the Company, together with your supporting documentation and banking information, you can do so by accessing the website below using the unique login details noted below. Alternatively, a hard copy proof of debt form can be downloaded from https://www.ey.com/en\_uk/administrations/isg-administrations and emailed with supporting documentation, to ISGcreditors@uk.ey.com

- Notice relating to a change in the Administrators, or their contact details.

- Notice of dividend or proposed dividend.
- A notice which the court orders to be sent to all creditors, or all creditors the particular category to which you belong.
